

Please delete as appropriate: Parent Carer / Practitioner / Young Person

SEND Outcomes Survey

Outcome	To what extent are these statements true? 1 = need not met at all 5 = need completely met					Comments
	1	2	3	4	5
Be Happy
Do you think you are supported to provide a standard of living that meets your child's physical and social needs?
Do you think your child is protected from bad treatment, violence abuse or neglect?
Is your child enabled to have friends and participate in groups that they chose?
Do you think your child is able to play, relax and take part in leisure, cultural or physical and social needs?
Be Healthy
Is your child supported to be as healthy as possible, including education about how to stay healthy?
Be Ambitious
Do you think your child is enabled to reach their full potential?
Does your child have access to education?

Is your child's education developing them to their full potential – their personality, their talents and their abilities?
Be Independent
Do you think your child's privacy is protected?
Is your child able to freely learn about their culture, language and religion?
Do you think your child is supported to live an independently as possible and be active in their community?
Be Heard
Do you think as a parent you are respected to act in the best interests of your child, including them in decisions where appropriate?
Do you think your child's best interests are always the top priority in decisions about them?
Do you think your child is supported to express their views about anything that affects them (this could include your decisions as a parent)?
Do you and / or your child understand what rights they have?

Please ensure all completed surveys are emailed to Kelly Mathias at communications@bbpcf.org.uk or handed in to her. Alternatively, you can take a clear photo of your completed survey and send it to us via the messenger option on the BBPCF Facebook page. Please do not hesitate to contact Kelly if you have any problems completing or returning the survey.